

SOCIETY

Blues' Battalion, April 19-24, will be in the "Period of 1861-1865" booth. In this corner will be depicted the styles of those stirring days, bringing back to the romance and heroism of the belle and beau of the Confederacy. The booth will be in the form of a tent, above which will fly the Stars and Bars of the Confederate States. The color scheme will be red and white, and the ladies and girls who will have charge will dress in the costumes of those days.

On Monday, April 19, the opening night, Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, chairman of the booth, will preside, assisted by Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor and Mrs. P. J. White.

The booth will be in charge of the Oakwood Memorial Association. On Tuesday, April 20, Mrs. C. W. Massie, chairman, will be assisted in the work by Mrs. Charles Ellips and committee. Wednesday, April 21, will be United Daughters of the Confederacy Day. The Daughters will preside over the booth and tea garden during the day and evening. Mrs. White, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. L. R. McVeigh, Mrs. C. C. Norwood, and committee. Members of the committee are Mesdames W. J. Gilman, Charles Robinson, C. R. Pearson, W. W. Foster, R. B. Higgins, George F. Hutchison, Conrad Walton, W. P. Wood, Archie Richardson, D. A. Brown, Stuart Brown, S. T. Outing to Williamsburg.
The Peterkin Guild Excursion to Williamsburg on Easter Monday, is always one of the leading events of that season. Some of the best known society women in town belong to the guild and act as patronesses for the outing, which has become an annual feature of Easter week each year. Luncheon will be served in Williamsburg by the guild. The Peterkin Guild House will be open all day for the benefit of the excursionists. A number of interesting parties have already been arranged for this excursion, and several hundred people will be expected to leave for Williamsburg next week.

Another Interesting Booth.
Another popular and attractive booth at the Blues' Bazaar, which will be a brilliant event of next month, will be the Peterkin Guild Booth, of which Mrs. J. M. Gregory and Mrs. W. F. Allen will have charge. Mr. Lambert has designed in connection with this booth a large and beautiful pergola, which will be decorated with flowers and bright-colored lights and fascinating costumes will be worn by those serving there.

Little Miss Hillsman Wins Applause.
The piano performance of little Miss Hillsman, a pupil of Mr. Bolling, created considerable surprise and enthusiasm when she appeared at a concert at the Second Presbyterian Church five days ago. Her first number contained "Joyous Farmer" and "Soldiers' March," both by Schumann. In the first place she brought out the melody in the left hand with perfect clearness, and in the march there was a precision and rhythm in keeping with the piece. The next piece was a minuet by Mozart. This brought forth so much enthusiasm that she had to play again. This time playing a "Piano Sonata" with supplement and celerity and gracefulness in wrist motion that elicited a great deal of applause. Little Miss Hillsman was the recipient of many congratulations and many expressions of surprise at the technique and memory of such a little girl. She is a daughter of Dr. Hillsman, of this city, and her record was a most interesting affair.

At the Art Club.
At the Art Club on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Frau Dr. Kerry, of Vienna, will give an illustrated talk on "The Wachau," a part of the Danube country, interesting through romance, art and the beautiful of nature. All of Frau Kerry's friends and the friends of the club members are cordially invited to attend the lecture, and tea will be served as usual. Miss Mary Barney Baughman will be chairman of the afternoon.

Dancing Club at Bon Air.
The "Merry-Go-Round" Dancing Club met at the Bon Air Inn on Saturday night with a large and enthusiastic crowd that danced until midnight. The inn was thrown open to the guests, and each one found something of special interest during the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullington, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. Haskin Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goolbsy, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wherry, Mrs. A. R. Holderby, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berkley, Misses Dorothy and Isabelle Smith, Mary Bullington, Augusta Dearborn, Frances Laird, Julia Wherry, Carrie Moore, Evelyn Anderson, Miss Robertson, Misses Gertrude Luthill and Helen Garthorpe, of New York, and Miss Conley, of Richmond. Messrs. Robert and Hildet Bullington, Ned Holderby, Burton Marye, Bert Brendon, Walter Robertson, Jerome Wells, Waverly Brown,

Members of Garden Club.
A most interesting club was organized the first Monday in March at Hill Crest, the residence of Mrs. C. Patterson, on the Cary Street Road. Known as the "Garden Club," the aim of this organization is to promote the art of agriculture and horticulture for the beautifying of our countryside. The lovers of and owners of beautiful gardens will meet once in two weeks for an interchange of experience and ideas upon this subject. At the initial meeting the following were elected officers of the "Garden Club": president, Mrs. M. C. Patterson, of "Hill Crest"; first vice-president, Mrs. William R. Massie, of "Rose Hill"; Albemarle County second vice-president, Mrs. John Skilton Williams, of "Paxton"; secretary, Mrs. Oliver J. Sands, treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Taylor. The charter members are Mrs. W. A. Witherspoon, Mrs. St. George Anderson, Mrs. Robert H. Talley, Mrs. N. D. Sills, Mrs. John Gordon, Miss Rebecca Gordon, Mrs. William M. Habington, of "Windemere"; Mrs. Bradley Johnson, of "Tuckahoe"; Mrs. Frank Powers, Mrs. Edgar Taylor, Mrs. Frank Hobson, Mrs. R. C. Seaynes, Mrs. D. R. Mayfield, of "Ashland"; Mrs. Alice Carter Bradford, of "Shirley"; on the lower James, Mrs. Thomas S. Wheelwright, of "Blackhead Springs"; Mrs. Thomas J. Settles, of "Meadow Brook"; Mrs. Archer W. Patterson, Mrs. B. B. Morgan, Mrs. Sally Nelson Robins, Miss Sally Anderson, Mrs. Thomas Christian Gordon, Miss Carrie Coleman, Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Miss Mary Williams, Mrs. Frank Tower, Mrs. Coleman Wortham, Mrs. Gordon Wallace, of "Ellerlie"; Mrs. J. Stewart Bryan, of "Taburnum"; and Mrs. Jonathan Bryan, of "Bothesay."

Wedding Anniversary.
On Friday evening, March 19, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Miles celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at their home, "The Old Home-stead." The floors were artistically decorated in palms, flowers and shaded candelabra. Mrs. Miles was gowned in silver-colored charmeuse and old lace and those receiving with her wore lace and pale pink. G. B. Miles rendered several selections on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. G. Har-

SKIN AFFECTION CAME ON FACE

In Small Bumps, Grew Larger, At Times Could Not Go Anywhere. Itched and Burned. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed My Face.

Route No. 2, Box 22, Bogus Chitto, Miss.—"The skin affection came on my face about five years ago. It began in little small bumps and they grew larger and larger until some of them formed eruptions. At times I could not go anywhere. They itched and burned and sometimes caused me to lose my sleep. The pimples festered and I scratched them. I tried remedies and they all failed. Seeing the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I used them. I would wash my face in warm water and Cuticura Soap night and morning and after washing I applied the Cuticura Ointment and let it stay on for five or ten minutes, then washed it off. It took only one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment to heal my face." (Signed) Miss Feulah B. Stamps, Sept. 2, 1914.

To allay minor irritations, remove redness and roughness, prevent pore-clogging and soften and soothe sensitive conditions use Cuticura soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally.

Accessories of Milady's Costume

THE simple styles and quaint modes, so befrilled and befruffed, are reflected most emphatically in the accessories of the costume—Parasols, Gloves and Neckties, Hand Bags and Bijouterie. In particular your attention is directed to the following modish numbers in Parasols:

"The Arcadian."
"The Chin-Chin."
"The Manhattan Maid."
"Vanity Fair."
"La Chapeau."

Wonderfully contrived, some of these with turned and tilted ends, with frillings and panels and points. All of them have a common aim—to lend distinction by perfect harmony with the new styles.

Neckwear upon which so much depends: The millaire, the vestee, the guimpe, Piccadilly collars and fischus, jabots and lace frills—in charming variety and distinguished conceits.

Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Hand Bags—all these things are offered in novel and unique effects. Each is an important adjunct to the completed costume. Consider them all.

Wonderfully Simple, Simply Wonderful Millinery

DID you know that lines have supplanted trimming as the standpoint of appeal? Yes, it is true. The GREAT hats of the season are great by virtue of wonderful, simple, charming, graceful lines in the shaping.

Black and white holds its place in the forefront of favor. Large and small shapes are about equally shown—both in great variety. Ribbon for trimming is used in plenty. Narrow widths in bows, streamers and cockades. Aeroplanes wings, fan effects and new bat wings are among the moment's popularities.

NOTE—A Large Shepherdess Sailor of hemp, with fallie silk upper facing, has two white birds perched directly on the crown, $15.00.

Featured for the dressy hat—black transparent hair. Georgette Sailors, attractive Poke, Tri Cornes and rolled brim effects are au fait. Simple trimmings are permitted only—a few strands of Paradise, a single quaint flower, with a ribbon bow or streamer—
